

CELEBRATION of Lights

AN INTERACTIVE ART WORKSHOP[®]

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 21 • 1:30 - 4:30PM MST

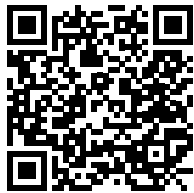

With Chanukah approaching, this workshop will kindle your enjoyment of creating art. Attuning to your spirituality, with a sprinkle of whimsy and musical elements, a series of original practice-based art exercises offers a safe journey of personal creative expression, reflection, and meaningful exchange.

This virtual workshop is geared to non-artists and artists alike, 18 years and older. Upon registration you will be emailed a basic list of suggested art materials.

MEMBERS $40

PUBLIC $50

REGISTER NOW

Facilitator: Alan Briks, MA, ATR-BC

Alan is an art therapist and visual artist. He has an art therapy practice in Calgary, and is presently an instructor with the art department at the University of Calgary (UC). He was formerly an adjunct professor in the nursing department at UC, has several publications, and has lectured widely. As a multi-media visual artist, Alan has been represented by Calgary's Inglewood Fine Arts and exhibits in many art galleries and public settings.

For info contact Danielle Braitman at dbraitman@jewishcalgary.org or 403-444-3146.

Image: Menorah Transcending Time, artist unknown: Jewish archive

